Acknowledgement is made of applicant's election of the apparatus claims for prosecution. A further restriction among subcombinations useable in the disclosed combination.

In the following restriction requirement claims 1 and 12 are linkage claims.
Claims 2 and 15 will be examined with either of groups I, II, or III.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 3 and 16, drawn to a lifting device having a trapezoidal spindle.
- II. Claim 4 and 17, drawn to a lifting device having a motor fastened to the bottom part.
- III. Claim 5, drawn to a lifting device having motor fastened on a central articulation.
- IV. Claims 6, 10, 11, 19, and 20, drawn to a lifting device having a sublinkage that runs along the bottom part.
- V. Claims 9, 14, and 18, drawn to a lifting device having a central articulation that moves rectilinearly.
- VI. Claim 13, drawn to a lifting device having a scissor linkage structure.

Claims 1 and 12 link(s) inventions I-VI. The restriction requirement for the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claim 1 and claim 12. Upon the indication of allowability of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be rejoined and fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104 Claims that require all the limitations of an allowable linking claim will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

Applicant(s) are advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, the allowable linking claim, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 443 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

Inventions I-VI are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable.

In the instant case, subcombination group I having a trapezoidal spindle need not have a motor fastened to the bottom part as in subcombination group II and could instead have a motor fastened on separate linkage arms and therefor subcombination group I has separate utility. Conversely, subcombination II having a motor fastened on the bottom part need not have the trapezoidal spindle of group I and could instead have a cylindrical spindle and therefor subcombination group II has separate utility. Using this same analysis by extension it can be seen that all groups have separate utility. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);

For example, subcombination group I requires a text and subclass search in class 411 which is not required for the searches of the other groups. Subcombination group II requires a separate text and subclass search in class 74 which is not required for the searches of the other groups. By using this analysis by extension, all groups have unique searches. To perform all these unique searches in one application would present a serious burden for the Office.

(d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;

(e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
